INDEX

Index to volume 169 January 1990 to June 1990

AA Applications in accounting
F Focus on industry
M Micros/technology
MAS Management advisory services
NR News report
PA For the practicing auditor
PE Professional ethics
PF Practitioners forum
PFP Personal financial planning
TA From the Tax Adviser

AUTHORS

Abernathy, Eugene S.
Managing a contractor's billings. (F) February, p. 107.

Akresh, Abraham D.
Common myths about audits. (PA) May, p. 110.

Bader, Allan H. and Cotrone, Angela
Reducing workers' compensation costs. May, p. 46.

Baliga, Wayne J.
Legal scene. (NR) January, p. 29; February, p. 13; March, p. 15; April, p. 17; May, p. 34; June, p. 34.

Barrett, Gene R.
Philip B. Chenok reflects on a decade of change. January, p. 74.
What bankers want to know before granting a small business loan. April, p. 47.

Beets, S. Douglas; Martin, Dale R.; and Tower, Ralph B.
Improving the recruiting process. (PF) February, p. 113.

Beresford, Dennis R.
What's right with the FASB. January, p. 81.

Biebl, Andrew R.
Ten tax tips for the small business. February, p. 52.

Black, Alan J. and Saudagaran, Shahrokh M.
Export accounting for the small and mid-sized company. (AA) February, p. 103.

Blanco-Best, Mimi and Dirkes, Ken
(A) reasonably objective basis for a forecast. (PA) January, p. 103.

Blankley, Alan and Forgione, Dana
Microcomputer security and control. June, p. 83.

Boisclair, Ronald E. and Sever, Mark V.
Financial reporting in the 1990s. January, p. 36.

Brecha, S. A. and Houston, M. A.
ADRs: increasingly popular financial instruments. (PFP) June, p. 144.

Broadus, William A., Jr. and Neebes, Donald L.
GAAS vs. GAGAS: how to report on internal controls. February, p. 58.

Budish, Armond D.
Long-term healthcare planning strategies. (PFP) June, p. 138.

Burge, Marianne; Paul, Herbert M.; and Willens, Robert
Tax briefs. January, p. 23; February, p. 18; March, p. 18; April, p. 20; May, p. 24; June, p. 29.

Capelli, Andrew J. and MacKay, Ian
Beyond ERISA: the author's responsibilities. April, p. 67.

Cheatham, Carole
Measuring and improving throughput. (F) March, p. 89.

Cheney, Glenn Alan
Soviet-American financial coexistence. January, p. 68.
Word crunching: a primer for accountants. March, p. 50.

Collins, Frank and Werner, Michael L.
Improving performance with cost drivers. (F) June, p. 131.

Collins, William A.
Simplifying a FASB 95 procedure. (PF) May, p. 124.

Cooper, Deborah E.
(The) Institute as legal advocate. May, p. 135.

Cooper, Joe R. and Solomon, Morton B.
Reporting on internal control: the SEC's proposed rules. June, p. 56.

Cotrone, Angela and Bader, Allan H.
Reducing workers' compensation costs. May, p. 46.

Daley, Ellen and Lach, Linda
How to satisfy the new CPE requirements. February, p. 65.

Dennis, Anita
(A) firm of one's own. June, p. 51.

Derieux, Samuel A.
In search of Eldorado. February, p. 88.

Dirkes, Ken and Blanco-Best, Mimi
(A) reasonably objective basis for a forecast. (PA) January, p. 103.

Doppelt, Andrew B.
(The) telltale signs of money laundering. March, p. 31.

Dragony, Donald J. and Sprohge, Hans
Common pitfalls in business interpretation insurance. May, p. 53.

Elliott, Raymond W. and King, Karl G.
In plain English, please. March, p. 43.

Fiore, Nicholas J.
Congress's continuing care solution. (TA) March, p. 10.
ESOP fables. (TA) February, p. 6.
How employers of independent contractors spell relief. (TA) June, p. 12.
News from the home (office) front. (TA) May, p. 12.
Using ESOPs for buyouts. (TA) January, p. 10.
Valuing closely held businesses. (TA) April, p. 10.

Fish, Gary L. and Leinicke, Linda M.
(A) different approach to serving clients. January, p. 53.

Flegm, Eugene H.
Should the FASB be neutral or responsive? March, p. 35.

Forgione, Dana and Blankley, Alan
Microcomputer security and control. June, p. 83.

Geiger, Marshall A.
Bankers' reactions to the new standard report and consistency reporting requirements. April, p. 50.

Gettelfinger, Dale; St. Clair, James; and Meredith, Vicki
(The) present value of a firm history. (PF) January, p. 120.

Gorman, Jerry
LBO frontiers in the 1990s: can accounting keep pace? June, p. 100.

Green, David C. and Starr, Samuel P.
ACE lite: Congress eases the AMT computation. February, p. 34.

Haberman, Louise Dratler
NASBA annual meeting: state boards as catalysts for quality. (NR) February, p. 14.

Hepp, Gerald H.
(The) plain paper controversy: should CPAs issue plain paper financial statements? April, p. 57.

Hickman, James R.
(The) MAS engagement: a profile. (MAS) May, p. 119.

Hira, Labh S. and Pickman, Milton
How to minimize penalties on retirement plan distributions. January, p. 42.

Holmes, James R.
Upgrading a personal computer. (M) April, p. 103.

Houston, M. A. and Brecha, S. A.
ADRs: increasingly popular financial instruments. (PFP) June, p. 144.

Howard, C. Randy and Taylor, Barbara G.
Common errors in financial statements. (PF) February, p. 111.

Israeloff, Robert L.
(The) plain paper controversy: should CPAs issue plain paper financial statements? April, p. 57.

Jacobson, Peter D. and Miller, John R.
GASB after the five-year structure review. April, p. 85.

Jacobson, Scott D. and Wolfe, Christopher
Auditing with your microcomputer. February, p. 70.

Kaiser, Richard W.
Knowledge-based systems. (M) January, p. 111.

Kanaga, William S.
Business integrity and the individual. (NR) January, p. 17.

Kaplan, Andrew B.
How to avoid wrongful discharge litigation. May, p. 87.

Kelly, J. Robert
Risk-based capital guidelines for banks. (F) January, p. 115.

King, Karl G. and Elliott, Raymond W.
In plain English, please. March, p. 43.

Korbel, John J. and Simpson, Chris D.
Getting U.S. companies ready for 1992. May, p. 60.

Lach, Linda and Daley, Ellen
How to satisfy the new CPE requirements. February, p. 65.

Leinicke, Linda M. and Fish, Gary L.
(A) different approach to serving clients. January, p. 53.

MacKay, Ian and Capelli, Andrew J.
Beyond ERISA: the auditor's responsibilities. April, p. 67.

Martens, Stan and Stevens, Kevin
Special report—business reacts to FASB's proposal for nonpension retirement benefits. (NR) June, p. 21.

Martin, Dale R.; Beets, S. Douglas; and Tower, Ralph B.
Improving the recruiting process. (PF) February, p. 113.

Mautz, R. K.
Why not-for-profits should report their commitments. June, p. 92.

Mednick, Robert
Independence: let's get back to basics. January, p. 86.

Meredith, Vicki; St. Clair, James; and Gettelfinger, Dale
(The) present value of a firm history. (PF) January, p. 120.

Miller, John R. and Jacobson, Peter D.
GASB after the five-year structure review. April, p. 85.

Miller, Paul B. W.
Should the FASB be neutral or responsive? March, p. 35.

Moskowitz, Robert A.
Laptops losing weight, gaining strength. April, p. 30.

Neebes, Donald L. and Broadus, William A., Jr.
GAAS vs. GAGAS: how to report on internal controls. February, p. 58.

Needle, Sheldon
Microcomputer-based manufacturing software. June, p. 75.

Paul, Herbert M.; Willens, Robert; and Burge, Marianne.
Tax briefs. January, p. 23; February, p. 18; March, p. 18; April, p. 20; May, p. 24; June, p. 29.

Pavlock, Ernest J.; Sato, Frank S.; and Yardley, James A.
Accountability standards for corporate reporting. May, p. 94.

Pearson, David B. and Sauter, Douglas P.
Assessing the risks of FAX confirmations. (PA) March, p. 75.

Pickman, Milton and Hira, Labh S.
How to minimize penalties on retirement plan distributions. January, p. 42.

Polakoff, Joel C.
Computer integrated manufacturing: a new look at cost justifications. March, p. 24.

Puleo, Joseph
(The) consultant as internal auditor. (MAS) March, p. 83.

Ranweiler, Robert J.
(A) proven method for improving a practice. January, p. 63.

Rimerman, Thomas W.
(The) changing significance of financial statements. April, p. 79.

Rosenbloom, Jerry S. and Stehman, John H.
Creative uses of life insurance. May, p. 40.

Sato, Frank S.; Pavlock, Ernest J.; and Yardley, James A.
Accountability standards for corporate reporting. May, p. 94.

Saudagaran, Shahrokh M. and Black, Alan J.
Export accounting for the small and mid-sized company. (AA) February, p. 103.

Sauter, Douglas P. and Pearson, David B.
Assessing the risks of FAX confirmations. (PA) March, p. 75.

Sever, Mark V. and Boisclair, Ronald E.
Financial reporting in the 1990s. January, p. 36.

Simpson, Chris D. and Korbel, John J.
Getting U.S. companies ready for 1992. May, p. 60.

Solomon, Morton B. and Cooper, Joe R.
Reporting on internal control: the SEC's proposed rules. June, p. 56.

Sprohge, Hans and Dragony, Donald J.
Common pitfalls in business interpretation insurance. May, p. 53.

St. Clair, James; Meredith, Vicki; and Gettelfinger, Dale
(The) present value of a firm history. (PF) January, p. 120.

Starkman, Jay
Prelude to simplification: why taxes are so complex. May, p. 78.

Starr, Samuel P. and Green, David C.
ACE lite: Congress eases the AMT computation. February, p. 34.

Stehman, John H. and Rosenbloom, Jerry S.
Creative uses of life insurance. May, p. 40.

Stevens, Kevin and Martens, Stan
Special report—business reacts to FASB's proposal for nonpension retirement benefits. (NR) June, p. 21.

Taylor, Barbara G. and Howard, C. Randy
Common errors in financial statements. (PF) February, p. 111.

Tower, Ralph B.; Beets, S. Douglas; and Martin, Dale R.
Improving the recruiting process. (PF) February, p. 113.

Wagner, Michael J.
How do you measure damages? lost income or lost cash flow? February, p. 28.

Wells, Joseph T.
Six common myths about fraud. February, p. 82.

Werner, Michael L. and Collins, Frank
Improving performance with cost drivers. (F) June, p. 131.

Whitehurst, C. Harril, Jr.
Proposed practice bulletin criteria for determining whether collateral for a loan has been in-substance foreclosed. (AA) June, p. 123.

Whittington, Ray
Substantive analytical procedures. (PA) March, p. 79.

Willens, Robert.
Taking aim at LBOs: the new tax act's corporate provisions. February, p. 42.

Willens, Robert; Burge, Marianne; and Paul, Herbert M.
Tax briefs. January, p. 23; February, p. 18; March, p. 18; April, p. 20; May, p. 24; June, p. 29.

Williams, Albert S.
Going solo. June, p. 44.

Wolfe, Christopher and Jacobson, Scott D.
Auditing with your microcomputer. February, p. 70.

Yardley, James A.; Pavlock, Ernest J.; and Sato, Frank S.
Accountability standards for corporate reporting. May, p. 94.

Yates, Dick
Think twice before selling that subsidiary! June, p. 67.

SUBJECTS

Accountancy profession
See also News report
(The) changing significance of financial statements. Thomas W. Rimerman. April, p. 79.
How to satisfy the new CPE requirements. Ellen Daley and Linda Lach. February, p. 65.
Word crunching: a primer for accountants. Glenn Alan Cheney. March, p. 50.

Accounting policies, principles and standards
See also Applications in accounting
News report
Official releases
Recent EITF actions
Accountability standards for corporate reporting. Ernest J. Pavlock, Frank S. Sato and James A. Yardley. May, p. 94.
(The) changing significance of financial statements. Thomas W. Rimerman. April, p. 79.
Financial reporting in the 1990s. Mark V. Sever and Ronald E. Sinclair. January, p. 36.
Getting U.S. companies ready for 1992. Chris D. Simpson and John J. Korbel. May, p. 60.
In search of Eldorado. Samuel A. Derieux. February, p. 88.
LBO frontiers in the 1990s: can accounting keep pace? Jerry Gorman. June, p. 100.
(The) plain paper controversy: should CPAs issue plain paper financial statements? Gerald H. Hepp. April, p. 57.
(The) plain paper controversy: should CPAs issue plain paper financial statements? Robert L. Israeloff. April, p. 57.
Should the FASB be neutral or responsive? Eugene H. Flegm. March, p. 35.
Should the FASB be neutral or responsive? Paul B. W. Miller. March, p. 35.
Soviet-American financial coexistence. Glenn Alan Cheney. January, p. 68.
Why not-for-profits should report their commitments. R. K. Mautz. June, p. 92.

American Institute of CPAs
See also Inside AICPA
News report
Washington update
Philip B. Chenok reflects on a decade of change. Gene R. Barrett. January, p. 74.

Applications in accounting; a department
Export accounting for the small and mid-sized company. Alan J. Black and Shahrokh M. Saudagaran. February, p. 103.
Proposed practice bulletin criteria for determining whether collateral for a loan has been in-substance foreclosed. C. Harril Whitehurst, Jr. June, p. 123.

Auditing and auditors
See also For the practicing auditor
News report
Official releases
Washington update
Accountability standards for corporate reporting. Ernest J. Pavlock, Frank S. Sato and James A. Yardley. May, p. 94.
Auditing with your microcomputer. Scott D. Jacobson and Christopher Wolfe. February, p. 70.
Bankers' reactions to the new standard report and consistency reporting requirements. Marshall A. Geiger. April, p. 50.
Beyond ERISA: the auditor's responsibilities. Andrew J. Capelli and Ian MacKay. April, p. 67.
Financial reporting in the 1990s. Mark V. Sever and Ronald E. Boisclair. January, p. 36.
GAAS vs. GAGAS: how to report on internal controls. Donald L. Neebes and William A. Broadus, Jr. February, p. 58.
Independence: let's get back to basics. Robert Mednick. January, p. 86.
Reporting on internal control: the SEC's proposed rules. Morton B. Solomon and Joe R. Cooper. June, p. 56.
Six common myths about fraud. Joseph T. Wells. February, p. 82.

Coming events; a department
January, p. 135; February, p. 130; March, p. 110; April, p. 142; May, p. 174; June, p. 160.

Computers
See also Micros/technology
Auditing with your microcomputer. Scott D. Jacobson and Christopher Wolfe. February, p. 70.

Computer integrated manufacturing: a new look at cost justifications. Joel C. Polakoff. March, p. 24.
In plain English, please. Karl G. King and Raymond W. Elliott. March, p. 43.
Laptops losing weight, gaining strength. Robert A. Moskowitz. April, p. 30.
Microcomputer-based manufacturing software. Sheldon Needle. June, p. 75.
Microcomputer security and control. Dana Forgione and Alan Blankley. June, p. 83.

Current reading; a department
January, p. 124; February, p. 116; March, p. 93; May, p. 128; June, p. 150.

Education
How to satisfy the new CPE requirements. Ellen Daley and Linda Lach. February, p. 65.

Exposure drafts outstanding; a department
January, p. 131; February, p. 126; March, p. 105; April, p. 138; May, p. 170; June, p. 156.

Financial Accounting Standards Board
See also News report
Financial reporting in the 1990s. Mark V. Sever and Ronald E. Boisclair. January, p. 36.
In search of Eldorado. Samuel A. Derieux. February, p. 88.
Should the FASB be neutral or responsive? Eugene H. Flegm. March, p. 35.
Should the FASB be neutral or responsive? Paul B. W. Miller. March, p. 35.
What's right with the FASB. Dennis R. Beresford. January, p. 81.

Focus on industry; a department
Improving performance with cost drivers. Frank Collins and Michael L. Werner. June, p. 131.
Managing a contractor's billings. Eugene S. Abernathy. February, p. 107.
Measuring and improving throughput. Carole Cheatham. March, p. 89.
Risk-based capital guidelines for banks. J. Robert Kelly. January, p. 115.

For the practicing auditor; a department
Applying the 50% rule in a single audit. May, p. 111.
Assessing the risks of FAX confirmations. David B. Pearson and Douglas P. Sauter. March, p. 75.
Common myths about audits. Abraham D. Akresh. May, p. 110.
(A) reasonably objective basis for a forecast. Ken Dirkes and Mimi Blanco-Best. January, p. 103.
Substantive analytical procedures. Ray Whittington. March, p. 79.

From the Tax Adviser; a department
Congress's continuing care solution. Nicholas J. Fiore. March, p. 10.
ESOP fables. Nicholas J. Fiore. February, p. 6.
How employers of independent contractors spell relief. Nicholas J. Fiore. June, p. 12.
News from the home (office) front. Nicholas J. Fiore. May, p. 12.
Using ESOPs for buyouts. Nicholas J. Fiore. January, p. 10.
Valuing closely held businesses. Nicholas J. Fiore. April, p. 10.

Government accounting and auditing
See also News report
GAAS vs. GAGAS: how to report on internal controls. Donald L. Neebes and William A. Broadus, Jr. February, p. 58.
GASB after the five-year structure review. John R. Miller and Peter D. Jacobson. April, p. 85.

Industry
See also Focus on industry
News report
Common pitfalls in business interpretation insurance. Donald J. Dragony and Hans Sprohge. May, p. 53.
Computer integrated manufacturing: a new look at cost justifications. Joel C. Polakoff. March, p. 24.
Getting U.S. companies ready for 1992. Chris D. Simpson and John J. Korbel. May, p. 60.
Reducing workers' compensation costs. Allan H. Bader and Angela Cotrone. May, p. 46.
(The) telltale signs of money laundering. Andrew B. Doppelt. March, p. 31.

Inside AICPA; a department
January, p. 125; February, p. 118; March, p. 94; April, p. 108; May, p. 135; June, p. 145.
(The) Institute as legal advocate. Deborah E. Cooper. May, p. 135.

Internal Revenue Service
See News report

Legal issues and legislation
See also News report
Washington update
How do you measure damages? lost income or lost cash flow? Michael J. Wagner. February, p. 28.
How to avoid wrongful discharge litigation. Andrew B. Kaplan. May, p. 87.
(The) telltale signs of money laundering. Andrew B. Doppelt. March, p. 31.

Letters; a department
Common interest realty association. R. K. Mautz. June, p. 15.
Hedge accounting. Fred S. Flax. May, p. 15.
Kudos for the FASB. Randy Howard. May, p. 15.
(A) New and improved JofA. Dixon Fagerberg, Jr. May, p. 15.
Quality review. Ronald D. Bouska. May, p. 15.
Retailing. Patrick Dunne and Ben Trotter. June, p. 16.
Retirement plan distributions. Steven B. Gorin. May, p. 16
Simplifying accounting standards. Robert H. Sanborn. June, p. 15.

Management advisory services
See also News report
Common pitfalls in business interpretation insurance. Donald J. Dragony and Hans Sprohge. May, p. 53.
(A) different approach to serving clients. Linda M. Leinicke and Gary L. Fish. January, p. 53.

Management advisory services, a department
(The) consultant as internal auditor. Joseph Puleo. March, p. 83.
(The) MAS engagement: a profile. James R. Hickman. May, p. 119.

Management of an accounting practice
See also Practitioners forum
(A) firm of one's own. Anita Dennis. June, p. 51.
Going solo. Albert S. Williams. June, p. 44.
(A) proven method for improving a practice. Robert J. Ranweiler. January, p. 63.

Micros/technology; a department
Knowledge-based systems. Richard W. Kaiser. January, p. 111.
Upgrading a personal computer. James R. Holmes. April, p. 103.

News report; a department
Accountants meet in Paraguay. January, p. 21.
Accountants not liable as sellers under section 12(2) of Securities Act. January, p. 29.
Accounting not an ERISA fiduciary. May, p. 34.
Accounting programs receive AAA education grants. June, p. 28.
Additional reviewers needed. January, p. 18.
AGA cites leadership excellence. April, p. 18.
AICPA offers tax season marketing material. January, p. 18.
AICPA standards not controlling at trial. May, p. 34.
Alabama Supreme Court adopts credit alliance rule. January, p. 29.
An EC scorecard: some progress on the road to 1992. May, p. 31.

INDEX

Assets in private pension plans. May, p. 26.
Audit requirements for fair share fee agreements. May, p. 34.
Audit updates available for 1989. January, p. 19.
Average commutes to work. January, p. 21.
Average regional compensation for CPAs. May, p. 22.
Avoiding group interest allocation. March, p. 21.
Base pay increases for salaried employees 1980–90. June, p. 20.
Base salary increases for exempt employees. February, p. 10.
Beware FASB no. 105 "sleeper" provision. June, p. 20.
Breach of employment contract not basis for a tort action. February, p. 13.
Business integrity and the individual. William S. Kanaga. January, p. 17.
Catalog of CPA promotional and marketing aids. February, p. 10.
CBO claims tax system favors richest. May, p. 21.
Choices offered employees in flexible benefit programs. April, p. 16.
Competition keeping lid on investment management fees. January, p. 23.
Continued small business growth forecast. May, p. 32.
Corporate controllers bullish for 1990–91. June, p. 29.
Corporate preparers' views on FASB opinions. February, p. 11.
CPA survey rates IRS, cites problems. March, p. 16.
CPAs' feelings about globalization. March, p. 18.
CPAs help after San Francisco earthquake. February, p. 9.
CPAs see fast start for business, problems later in 1990s. March, p. 16.
Directors' compensation for 1989. June, p. 24.
Does your boss treat you fairly and honestly? May, p. 31.
EC merger control regulation approved after long delay. May, p. 31.
EC tax commissioner sets priorities. June, p. 24.
Employees pay more for less healthcare. February, p. 12.
Employer matching contributions for 401(k) plans. January, p. 14.
Excluding personal injury awards. January, p. 23.
Exit etiquette. June, p. 28.
FAF alters position on FASB-GASB jurisdiction. January, p. 13.
FASB defers income tax statement for two years. February, p. 11.
FASB statement on cash flows. March, p. 17.
FASB "supermajority" voting stirs controversy. April, p. 13.
Fewer banks losing money. January, p. 16.
Financial institution audit exposure. March, p. 15.
First international CPA firm opens East German offices. May, p. 31.
Forecast for executive salary increases worldwide. April, p. 14.
Foreign investment in United States sets record. June, p. 28.
Franchise tax benefits imperiled. January, p. 23.
Fraud and financial projections. March, p. 15.
GAO study finds differences in large and small pension plans. March, p. 13.
GASB ED on financial reporting entity. May, p. 32.
Government policies keeping a lid on pension savings. March, p. 13.
(The) graying of dependents. April, p. 15.
Growth of assets in private pension plans. May, p. 25.
Houston mayor urges CPA involvement in government. April, p. 18.
Hunt family "gifts." April, p. 20.
IFAC draft on costs of capital. March, p. 18.
IIA statement on communication. January, p. 19.
International accounting roundup. March, p. 17.
IRS income statistics available. January, p. 23.
Jerusalem accounting conference to stress harmonization. April, p. 16.
Jury verdict for CPAs affirmed by Court of Appeals. April, p. 20.
Legal scene. Wayne J. Baliga. January, p. 29; February, p. 13; March, p. 15; April, p. 17; May, p. 34; June, p. 34.
Liability for estate tax extension. February, p. 13.
Literary award winners. February, p. 12.
Loan swaps and S&Ls. March, p. 18.
M&A activity declines further in early 1990. June, p. 28.
(A) mandate for private health insurance. January, p. 18.
Most serious employee problems. February, p. 17.
NASBA annual meeting: state boards as catalysts for quality. Louise Dratler Haberman. February, p. 14.
NBER survey projects modest GNP growth. June, p. 29.
New FASB oversight committee. January, p. 14.
New 482 ruling procedure: a break for the taxpayer? May, p. 26.
New IRS fee schedule for rulings and determination letters. May, p. 21.
New regs on business expense and government contracts. February, p. 17.
Niemiec joins AICPA as operations chief. January, p. 18.
1989 tax act. February, p. 18.
Ohio statute of limitations. April, p. 17.
Parental leave gathers widespread support. May, p. 23.
Partial liquidations. May, p. 24.
Pension obligations well covered by assets. May, p. 23.
Poison pills. April, p. 21.
Preretirement planning programs. March, p. 14.
Private debt increasing sharply. May, p. 32.
Proposed guidance for entities in bankruptcy. June, p. 24.
Proposed SOP guidance on treating debt securities. March, p. 17.
Q-Tip trusts and loss of marital deduction. March, p. 20.
Rapid growth in service industries. March, p. 16.
Regional salaries. May, p. 22.
Roundup of new GASB statements and proposals. January, p. 15.
RTC guidelines for contracting with firms in litigation. June, p. 19.
S corporations acquisitions. February, p. 18.
Section 367 regs issued. April, p. 21.
SERPs in common use among top industrials. May, p. 23.
(The) sliding savings rate: an economic issue for the 1990s. April, p. 18.
Slow progress for EC workers' bill of rights. April, p. 14.
Small companies lack patent protection. May, p. 24.
Soaring costs of group health benefit plans. February, p. 11.
Solicitation ban removed in Florida. March, p. 15.
SOP on bank director's exams due out soon. January, p. 19.
Special report—business reacts to FASB's proposal for nonpension retirement benefits. Stan Martens and Kevin Stevens. June, p. 21.
Strong growth seen for global economy. June, p. 24.
Statement on financial instruments disclosures. June, p. 19.
Support for international standards. April, p. 15.
Supreme Court holds for service in Goodyear case. February, p. 18.
Survey finds small business optimism rising. February, p. 12.
Tax briefs. January, p. 23; February, p. 18; March, p. 18; April, p. 20; May, p. 24; June, p, 29.
Tax Court reversal on home office deduction. May, p. 24.
Tax progressivity declines. May, p. 21.
Tax relief for disaster victims. February, p. 18.
Temporary accord on VAT for EC exports. April, p. 15.
Third-party reliance on reviewed financial statements. April, p. 17.
$36.5 million fraud judgment against accounting firm. April, p. 17.
Time on the job. May, p. 32.
Treaty with India signed. January, p. 24.
Uncollected funds top IRS priority. May, p. 22.

United States biggest acquirer of EC companies. April, p. 15.
United States steps up EC investments. May, p. 31.
What CPAs in industry are earning. January, p. 14.
What makes small businesses succeed? January, p. 19.
Who reads direct mail? April, p. 21.
Widespread labor shortage looms for the 1990s. February, p. 11.
Younger workers concerned about Social Security. April, p. 20.

Official releases; a department
Auditing interpretations. February, p. 123.
Compliance auditing applicable to governmental entities and other recipients of governmental financial assistance. May, p. 145.
Ethics interpretations and rulings. February, p. 124.
Quality review interpretation. May, p. 168.
Statement of financial accounting standards no. 103—accounting for income taxes—deferral of the effective date of FASB statement no. 96. March, p. 101.
Statement no. 10 of the Governmental Accounting Standards Board—accounting and financial reporting for risk financing and related insurance issues. April, p. 114.

Pensions and retirement
See also News report
Washington update
Financial reporting in the 1990s. Mark V. Sever and Ronald E. Boisclair. January, p. 36.
How to minimize penalties on retirement plan distributions. Labh S. Hira and Milton Pickman. January, p. 42.

Personal financial planning
See also News report
Creative uses of life insurance. John H. Stehman and Jerry S. Rosenbloom. May, p. 40.

Personal financial planning; a department
ADRs: increasingly popular financial instruments. M.A. Houston and S.A. Brecha. June, p. 144.
Long-term healthcare planning strategies. Armond D. Budish. June, p. 138.

Practitioners forum; a department
Common errors in financial statements. C. Randy Howard and Barbara G. Taylor. February, p. 111.
Daily time sheets prove time is money. January, p. 119.
Improving the recruiting process. S. Douglas Beets, Dale R. Martin and Ralph B. Tower. February, p. 113.
(The) present value of a firm history. James St. Clair, Vicki Meredith and Dale Gettelfinger. January, p. 120.
Simplifying a FASB 95 procedure. William A. Collins. May, p. 124.

Professional ethics; a department
Test your knowledge of professional ethics. May, p. 117.

Qs&As quality review; a department
Guidelines: eligibility; review date, cost and process; and CPE. March, p. 69.

Qs&As technical hotline; a department
Franchisor and state and local government units issues. June, p. 117.
Insurance, real estate and hospital issues. January, p. 99.
Issues concerning employee benefit funds, profit-sharing and pension plans and state and local government units. May, p. 107.
Real estate, employee benefit funds, profit-sharing and pension plans and state and local government units issues. April, p. 97.
Utility, insurance, hospital and real estate issues. March, p. 61.
Utility, insurance, real estate and hospital issues. February, p. 99.

Recent EITF actions; a department
Earnings per share for ESOP convertible preferred stock. April, p. 93.
Exchange of debt with creditor. June, p. 111.
Expense recognition for ESOPs. March, p. 56.
Issue no. 89-13. February, p. 93.
Leveraged ESOPs and sale-leasebacks. January, p. 95.
Real estate sale accounting. May, p. 102.

Securities and Exchange Commission
See News report
Washington update

Small business
Export accounting for the small and midsize company. Alan J. Black and Shahrokh M. Saudagaran. (AA) February, p. 52.
(The) plain paper controversy: should CPAs issue plain paper financial statements? Gerald H. Hepp. April, p. 57.
(The) plain paper controversy: should CPAs issue plain paper financial statements? Robert L. Israeloff. April, p. 57.
What bankers want to know before granting a small business loan. Gene R. Barrett. April, p. 47.

Taxes and tax planning
See also From the Tax Adviser
News report
Washington update
ACE lite: Congress eases the AMT computation. Samuel P. Starr and David C. Green. February, p. 34.
How to minimize penalties on retirement plan distributions. Labh S. Hira and Milton Pickman. January, p. 42.
Prelude to simplification: why taxes are so complex. Jay Starkman. May, p. 18.
Taking aim at LBOs: the new tax act's corporate provisions. Robert Willens. February, p. 42.
Ten tax tips for the small business. Andrew R. Biebl. February, p. 52.
Think twice before selling that subsidiary! Dick Yates. June, p. 67.

Washington update; a department
AICPA backs ERISA full-scope audit bill. March, p. 23.
AICPA endorses Civil Justice Reform Act. April, p. 27.
AICPA supports improvements in ERISA enforcement. January, p. 31.
AICPA urges SRO bill exclude CPAs. January, p. 31.
Bill introduced to register financial planners with SEC. June, p. 38.
Cooking the books is a bad recipe to cool deficit. February, p. 23.
CPA appointed to ERISA advisory council. June, p. 40.
CPA appointed to new FDIC position. May, p. 37.
CPA named CFO for DOE. June, p. 37.
CPA named to equal opportunity post. March, p. 23.
CPA new head of UMTA. February, p. 26.
Dear Ann Landers. June, p. 37.
Diss honored by tax division. February, p. 22.
Hoffman testifies on "tax gap." June, p. 37.
HUD seeks CPAs for new positions. March, p. 23.
OMB lists agencies most vulnerable to fraud. February, p. 22.
Political leaders endorse AICPA reform proposals. February, p. 21.
RICO update. April, p. 28.
SAB no. 87 on insurance disclosure. March, p. 23.
SBA announces women's business initiatives. May, p. 37.
Schapiro confirmed for SEC term. January, p. 34.
SEC announces 1990 fellowship selections. May, p. 37.
SEC budget for fiscal 1991. April, p. 25.
SEC seeking CPAs. June, p. 42.
Skadden named to IRS commissioner's advisory group. February, p. 26.
Spring tax division meeting to feature top speakers. May, p. 38.
Tax reform blamed for complexity and "perennial change." April, p. 25.
Treasury IG confirmed, FDIC IG appointed. January, p. 34.